I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace.

In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world.”

John 16:33 NIV

Palestine/Israel, Lebanon, Sudan, Myanmar, Yemen, Ukraine, the U.S. elections.... We continue to pray for peace in our world, and for Christ’s peace to rule in the hearts of all who trust in Him.

Ann Chow, Event & Project Management. “I would love prayer for our 80+ cities and about 36 countries that are participating in #HACK (hack.indigitous.org), a global, Christian innovation weekend for ministry. Our city hosts run each weekend from Oct. 25-Nov. 23. I’m their global trainer and partnerships lead. It’s very inspiring to see Christians come together to tackle physical, emotional and spiritual issues that are felt around the world and in missions.”

SUNDAY

Dave & Rani, Mission Go, Brampton. “Dave is currently in South Asia. From Nov. 1-13, he will be in Varanasi, India, meeting with workers and pastors. Nov. 14-30 will be spent in Nepal, where he hopes to meet several pastors, including one whose church was recently attacked. Please pray for his safety, also protection from food poisoning. Pray for Rani, as this will be the first time she’s alone in the house. Praise God that Deepak is doing well at university!”

Leah Hopp, OPC, Uganda. “A missionary family will join the Karamoja station at the beginning of the month. The full mission will meet on the 21st to discuss the upcoming year’s budget. I am expecting it to be another lengthy, difficult meeting. We need wisdom to discuss various ministries and how they all fit together without the benefit of official mission plans going forward.”

---

Paul & Mary Beth McLean, PCC, Taiwan. “May God bless and guide Paul and all the Bible translation teams he supports as he visits them in Taiwan this month. May God encourage the Tayal and Bunun peoples to read and apply their Bibles (published in July 2022 and March 2024) and the Pinuyumayan people their New Testament (November 2023).”

---

Elizabeth Matthias, Germany. “The Discovering Change course started late due to illness, but well! Please pray Tuesdays through to Nov 19th that we would sense the Spirit moving to enable real change in all of us! Prayer is also appreciated for counselees who are struggling greatly, mentees’ support, our church’s challenges in a liberal denomination, and my financial support.”

---

Jack & Mary Anne Voelkel, Arizona. “Mary Anne and Jack will be celebrating with thanksgiving and joy, their 90th birthdays and the publishing of Mary Anne’s book, with all the members of their family. Pray that it would be a blessed and meaningful time, especially for those who still need to draw nearer to Jesus.”

November 8 – 10!

8

C & K. "C & K are grateful for an abundance of new initiatives coming together under the umbrella of a new business-as-mission (BAM) initiative they have launched. Pray for C in Board meetings this month for the strategic company in Indonesia. Pray for C as he speaks at a major BAM conference this month. Pray for K as she engages in several worker-recruitment opportunities."

---

9

Carluci & Christina Dos Santos, Mesa Global. "The workshop on 'how to preach from the Old Testament' for leaders in Quebec is going well. November 10-24, I'll be teaching two 30 hr Bible courses in Rwanda. Thank you for your continued prayers and support."

SUNDAY

I & S. "S started a bilingual Good Book study with her language teachers. Please pray for the Spirit to speak across language barriers. I. has some travel this month. Please pray for peace in the countries around us."

11

Our Refugee Family. The Haidarys are deeply concerned for family members still in danger zones. A relative recently escaped from a brutal arrest. Pray for this extended family, and for all victims of war and oppression on this, Remembrance Day 2024. "Lest we forget" also affirms our need to pray and work for God's Kingdom to come.

12

Sylvan Payne, Japan. "I mostly have thanks for the blessings I have been experiencing lately. People who see me after a few months comment that it seems my condition is improving. Currently I'm trying to get my part time teaching job changed to 2 days/week from one. Teaching four 100-minute classes back-to-back is exhausting. Pray that works out."

13

Gord & Brenda Nickerson, Josiah Venture. Praise God for scores of exciting Christian youth camps held throughout Eastern Europe this past summer. Lift up their daughter Katie and her husband Dane and their four children, seven years of age and under. Dane is being treated for stage 3 cancer.

14

Chyrl Basa, FFM. FFM's Global Day of Prayer for the Muslim World is November 16th! Please pray as they invite field workers to share about their ministries. Continue to intercede for the Middle East, that God will use this difficult situation to open hearts and eyes to Jesus Christ. Pray for His children, caught in the middle of the conflict but faithfully witnessing to family and neighbours, and being the hands and feet of Christ in this time of need.

15

Laurie Armstrong, Power to Change. "As students enter into the final month of their semester, pray that they would experience the strengthening presence of Jesus as they study, interact with others, and dig deeper into what it means to follow Jesus in both ordinary and extraordinary moments of life. As many consider investing part of a summer or year in missions, pray for discernment and a strong sense of God's leading this month as they explore different possibilities."

---

16

Aina Dobilaitė, Lithuania. "Please pray for the worship evening on November 17th, that it would be an encouragement for our people and at the same time be an outreach opportunity. Also, please pray for me as I try to discern what to do about my housing and make plans for the future. (I need God's wisdom, guidance and provision.)"

SUNDAY

Luke & Yuko Elliot, Aomori Christian Center, Japan. The Elliots are still involved in the demolition of the old main building and the cleanup that must follow. Pray for energy, health and safety. Remember their three kids (Grace, Faith, Judah) far away at Faith Academy, as well as their two youngest (Josiah and Johnny) at home with their parents.

18

Khevna & Sharon, Knox Missions Hub. "Praise God for incredible times of weekly prayer with students, where we have been reminded of how powerfully God is at work around us! Please pray for us to invite the right students to join our partners on upcoming missions trip opportunities."

---

19

Sylvia Dresser, Waterloo. "Please pray for my daughter-in-law, Joyce, who caught Covid 19 when it first appeared and has continued to suffer Long Covid since then. After a few periods of improvement, she has had relapses which are very discouraging. And please continue to pray that it will be possible for my son, Andrew, to get a kidney transplant."

---

20

S & H, Mexico. "Thanks for joining us by prayer all the time. How important it is to be together in this wonderful walking with the Lord... This long waiting time in our home country was necessary to have time to reconnect with the people of God." God is in control of every situation. "The people who we have prayed for long time are still in our hearts. Just asking the LORD what's the next step to do, where, when, and how?"

---

21

KWM. As always, pray for wisdom in allocating resources, and for more resources to allocate. Pray that many in Knox will catch a vision for outreach, praying for workers, joining the Committee.

22

Eleanor Crabtree, Owen Sound. "Please pray for the Bible Study I have started at Seasons. Nine residents are involved so far. Pray for wisdom as I prepare questions on the assigned passage, and what to study in the future."

---

23

Susan Jeffery, CANIL, Abbotsford. "I am recataloguing quite a few books for giveaway that have been requested as office resources by CanIL faculty. Pray for steady progress and that having these catalogued records will prove an effective way to keep tabs on the whereabouts of course resources so that students and faculty alike can access them. Also, pray that the much more straightforward book giveaway to students for their personal libraries will be accomplished this month."

SUNDAY

Colin & Rachel McCordic, AIM, Chad. The McCordics have a home! They were able to bless a friend by buying from her as she was leaving Chad and were also able to get some furniture made by talented Chadian furniture makers. "It is really exciting to be able to put down roots here in Chad as we serve the Lord no longer as short-term but now long-term workers." Colin has been helping with the launch of the Perspectives Program in Francophone Africa.

25

Mary Jane, Texas. Mary Jane is hoping to return to Lebanon to share in the care of lost children. Eiaine Esser, Owen Sound. "May the Lord provide all the spiritual, physical and finances of His servants so that His work would be done in His way."

---

26

Hanneke Cost Budde, Tanzania.

Thanksgiving for a good time with Mfaume, Christina and Baraka home for holidays, and Jacky with Daniel. Faraja, Mfaume and Jacky face exams, and Christina goes back for her diploma course. Pray that her kids all will get a real hunger for God's Word. They are influenced by peers, becoming less interested in praying and having devotions and listening to church services. Hanneke's brother and his wife are coming for a 3-week visit. "God is good!"

---

27

Jim Mason, Challenge Enterprises,

Ghana. "Pray for all missionaries involved in outreach to the Fulani people in Ghana. Pray the Holy Spirit will convict many of their sin and guide them to surrender to the Lordship of Christ."

---

28

Gus & Marliese, London. "Please pray for the Alpha course we're involved in. Two of my friends have joined us on these Monday evening sessions. Continue to pray for the mall Bible study and the Yazidi families I visit."

---

29

Bill Fitch. Listen to Learn. The fall promotion at Listen to Learn is a program of buying motorbikes (a.k.a. piki-pikis or boda-bodas) for regional leaders. In rural places, simply arranging access can be a challenge. Please pray that this fundraiser will successfully provide motorbikes to several of the 18 regional leaders. "And then pray that the improved access will lead to more and more rural pastors accessing our sweet teaching so they can preach and train better."

30

Phase II Workers. John & Debra Bowen, Glenn & Fern Byerly (Fern asks us to pray that she slows down and is more careful. Sometimes she ends up falling.), Gladys Linthicum, Norine Love, Patsy McCarthy, David & Angela Morris (Pray for Angela who just had knee surgery, and for David who cares for her), Barbara Rahn, Marg Roth, Pamela Stedman, Diana Wadsworth, Rosemary Walker.
