

23 Rosemary Walker, AIM, is back from the Congo, eager to go again if an opportunity arises. For now she is grateful for a place to stay in Verdun. She'll work on translations into French for AIM.

24 Jim Mason, SIM, Ghana. Jim praises God for work on Bible Commentaries expected to be ready by the end of 2017 or start of 2018: the Amharic Commentary and the Hausa and Hindi commentaries.

25 Sylvan Payne, Japan, asks prayer for his family, each one attending a different church on Sundays.

Following Norine Love's retirement from FFM, she has agreed to accept a two-year volunteer assignment to help connect with KWM Phase 2 folk. Her responsibilities include visiting all Phase 2 workers once in her tenure, as well as communicating regularly. KWM covers her travel and associated expenses.

26 Gus & Marliese bid farewell to their congregation and Youth Group in Algiers, and begin their next phase in Canada.

27 Xerggyo & Hil ask prayer for his family whose house was damaged in the first earthquake, and for the devastating situation in Mexico City.

28 Pray for phase 2 workers: Dr & Mrs Owen; Alex McCombie who lost his dear wife, Ruth; Beth Huddleston, Diane Dadian, David & Joan Evans, Patsy McCarthy, Glenn & Fern Byerly, Marg Roth, Eleanor Crabtree and her sick husband, John; Clarence & Cathy McMullen, Pam Stedman, Gladys Linthicum, Elaine Esser, and David & Angela Morris.

SUN Ruth Thomson, LAM, Brazil. "Pray that the Lord will protect the Kayapó believers from the heretical sects that are encroaching into their villages and trying to win them over. I am thankful for the good health and strength that the Lord has given me."

30 Pray for Gord & Brenda Nickerson, Josiah Venture, as they transfer from US to Canada.

31 John and Deborah Bowen. In retirement, John continues to preach and teach, write and mentor. Deborah, also retired, teaches part-time. Please pray for wisdom and energy.

www.knoxworldmission.ca

October 2017

Knox World Mission

SUN Ann Chow, Project Management, Toronto. Pray for Heather Hauka, Kari Yamamoto and Ann as they travel to Johannesburg to help train the staff and run Masiye, the IFES student missions conference for the 10 Southern Africa countries Oct. 3-8.

2 Bill & Sheila McKelvie will attend their annual Interserve Conference Oct. 3-8; Sheila will help to facilitate the Sharpening Your Interpersonal Skills Workshop in Karachi Oct. 15-19, followed by the Equipped to Serve (E2S) workshop in Thailand Oct. 22-28.

3 Norine Love, FFM, Toronto. So many prayed for Nabeel Qureshi's healing from cancer. The Lord has taken this dear young witness to Himself. Pray that new converts from Islam will not be discouraged, that Jesus will be lifted up even more.

4 C & K will be travelling this month to Turkey and Egypt, where C will speak at two business conferences. Pray for anointing and for the Lord of the Harvest to do His thing! They also have a number of new investment opportunities under consideration. Pray for wisdom.

5 Elizabeth Matthias, Mission to the World, Germany. "The Lord marvellously created space for the DMin research, guided my thoughts in new ways and now the focus is on writing. Pray for counselees to know and love God more deeply, to follow Him more completely."

6 David & Susan Jeffery, CanIL. Susan has regained full mobility following her biking accident in mid-July, but she still experiences significant discomfort. Pray for wisdom in knowing how active to be in order to rebuild muscle, without overdoing it.

7 Hanneke Cost Budde, AIM, Tanzania. Pray the Malumba project will get registered and Hanneke her resident's permit. Praise God the kids are doing so well in studies: A's for Kiri, Baraka & Faraja; B for Mfaume, C for Ngassa. So thankful that Hanneke's mom in Holland is in better health.

SUN Laurie Armstrong, Power to Change, Guelph. Praise God for great contacts with new/returning students in September! Pray for effective follow up of new contacts, students returning from fall Summit conferences, for large and small outreaches on campuses, and for her team as they prep and recruit for P2C+ conference in Toronto (Dec. 28-31).

9 Jacob & Natasha Chandler, MoveIn, Toronto. In October Jacob will be joining a vision trip to New York City for MoveIn to survey neighbourhoods, share the vision with Christian groups, and pray for opportunities. Join us in praying for a MoveIn team to be mobilized into an unreached, urban poor neighbourhood of NYC!

10 Carluci & Christina dos Santos, LAM, Canada. Pray for the LAM retreat (board and corporate members, missionaries, staff, friends and supporters of the mission) on Oct. 13. They will gather for fellowship, prayer and to reflect on the way they work and engage in God's mission in Latin America.

11 Katie Fuller & Chez Johnson, the Knox Missions Hub. On Oct. 14 they will host Live Called, an event to bring together faithful professionals who work locally and globally for discipleship into local and global work. Pray for all details around a vision trip to Central Asia that Katie will coach and several of our people hope to attend.

12 Devanand & Rani, Global Outreach, Brampton. Pray for Devanand as he contacts pastors in India and Nepal and prepares materials for his planned trip to those countries in November. Thank God Rani's sister is feeling better. Rani would like to re-start the ladies' group (Hindu and Sikh) but so far that has been difficult.

13 Donna Dong, InterVarsity, Canada. Pray as Donna puts new training plans forward on how to advance InterVarsity's mission to reach youth in all their ethnic diversity with the gospel. Also, pray God's Word bears much fruit as she preaches 3 times in GTA churches this month.

14 Mary Jane Fandrich, Lebanon, Lebanon on Oct 18. With a group of children whom she has cared for since the age of two and who are now school age, she will focus on teaching them the scriptures orally in Arabic. Pray for good travel and suitable accommodation in or near the orphanage.

SUN Dominique Goold, IVCF, Scarborough Campus. So far there has been good response and energy in the small Life Impact groups. Pray they influence one another through Scripture and respond to the Word with their friends on the campus itself.

16 Barbara Rahn, OMF, Cambridge. Pray for J.A. as she becomes Short Term Missions Co-ordinator for OMF. Until then training is under the current Short Term Coordinator. The busy short term season begins in January 2018.

17 Leah Hopp, OPC, Uganda. Leah is thankful for a good holiday in the Alps with her parents and other relatives. A new woman arrived in Karamoja to serve with the mission for one year. Pray Leah can find ways to support her.

18 Wayne & Helen Hancock, Threefold Ministries, Nicaragua. Pray that relief workers in Mexico City will be strengthened and those who can share, will find receptive listeners to the Gospel. Praise that their ministry partner, VELA, in Mexico City has not lost any staff.

19 Jack & Mary Anne Voelkel, Arizona. Pray for David, their new minister, as he seeks the Lord and His will for the Tucson Church. May God help Jack & Mary Anne as they continue their discipleship ministry under David's leadership.

20 Bill Fitch, Listen to Learn, East Africa. Pray for Kenya's ongoing troubled election saga. Democracy is difficult. Pray for a spirit of peace and cooperation.

21 Paul & Mary Beth McLean, PCC, Taiwan. May God help the Bunun translation team set up 3 regional reading groups to read through the whole Bible to ensure it uses smooth, natural Bunun that will be clear to all readers in each region.

SUN Sylvia Dresser, TEAM, Papua. The Merauke Community Center needs a new Indonesian director. Pray that God will indicate His choice and bring him to serve. Give thanks for 5 men and their families who completed 3 years of training in the Bible School and are returning to their villages as shepherds of their village churches.