

23 Jim Mason, SIM, Challenge Enterprises, Ghana. The Ghana Fellowship of Evangelical students partnered with Cinevan for a 21 day outreach in the Volta region. In a commercial town 3000 people watched a gospel film with 256 praying to receive Jesus as Saviour. Partner churches need to follow-up.

24 Norine Love, FFM, FFM will be taking part in the November 1st, 3rd biennial conference on witness among Canadian Muslims. Pray for the Lord's hand to be evident in every area; attendees, speakers and for a strong vision for future ministry.

25 Carluci & Christina Dos Santos, LAM, Canada. The IFES conference in Cochabamba, Bolivia, went well. Carluci's presentations were well received. There were 90+ students from Ecuador, Bolivia Peru and Colombia. Pray about needed board members.

26 Laurie Armstrong, Power to Change. They are thankful for a great start to the new school year. Pray for students returning from fall Summits, for integration of what they learned & experienced. Pray for preparations & registration for coming P2C+ National student conference in Toronto in Dec.

27 Phase 2: Mrs. Pru Owen, Gladys Linthicum, Patsy McCarthy, Beth Huddleston, Diane Dadian, Elaine Esser and Eleanor Crabtree.

SUN Phase 2: Pam Stedman, Clarence & Cathy McMullen, Glenn & Fern Byerly, David Evans, Marg Roth, John & Deborah Bowen.

29 Knox Dinner and Food Bank. Remember the needs of the youth living on the margins in our city.

30 Pray for the Mission Hub event on November 17, 2018. Live Called. Designed to equip people to effectively share their faith where they work, study and live.

31 Remember those who are planning to attend the 2018 Urbana Conference.

← Elizabeth Matthias, Germany. "Counselling breakthroughs have been glorious; mentoring and teaching opportunities have increased."

October 2018

Knox World Mission

1 Donna Dong, IVCF, Canada. Pray for Donna as she attends the first National Staff Leaders Gathering, Oct. 1-2, led by the new president, Nigel Pollack. Donna will help mobilize 2000 Canadians to register for December's Urbana 18.

2 Xerggyo & Hil. They are very grateful for an extended time in North America with friends and family restoring health and arranging possible connections for international work.

3 Jack & Mary Anne Voelkel, Arizona, are asking God for wisdom and strength as they move out of their lovely home Oct. 6th to a smaller townhouse. Pray for loving relations with all new neighbours and for God's lavish grace as they continue to disciple and counsel individuals and couples in their church in Tucson.

4 Geri Rodman, IVCF, Canada. Oct. 4-9 is an Annual Prayer retreat with 9 women who have met for 30 years to listen to God and pray for each other.

Geri will have a 6-month sabbatical before she returns to IVCF to coach and consult with IFES in March 2019. Pray that those who come to the big Oct. 9th Thanksgiving dinner, not knowing Jesus, would find a personal relationship with Him.

5 Sylvia Dresser, retired from work in Papua, asks for a speedy return of 2nd year students so Merauke Bible School can get underway. Five new student families have entered the program. In the mountains of the Bird's Head, the Hatam language Bible School with 400 students, needs a head to replace Simson who served faithfully 30 years and now has health issues.

6 Hanneke Cost Budde, AIM, Tanzania. She has been having difficulty with Kiri not wanting to go to school and Faraja needs healing from some illness. Her medical assistant, Thomas, is confused at times. May the Lord give Hanneke wisdom and grace in the care of her kids and the clinics.

SUN Dom Goold, UTSC, IVCF. They praise God for the miraculous provision of a community house. Pray for her students and for receptivity from other students they meet and invite to meetings. May their follow up be effective. They look for future students in miraculous ways, too.

8 Ann Chow. As the global travel coordinator, she and her team welcomed all staff for the IJM conference in the USA. Then Oct 11-22 she leads the team to Manila to prepare for the Global Workplace Forum which happens in June 2019. May she have wisdom in planning the agenda. Finally she has a short vacation in the Philippines and Korea.

9 Gus & Marliese. Pray for the Lord's guidance as they make plans to go overseas.

10 C & K . This is a month of significant travel in connection with companies in Indonesia, Pakistan and the Emirates, as well as speaking at events in Toronto, Halifax and the Gulf.

11 Bill & Sheila McKelvie, Interserve. Pray for Sheila attending Interserve Leaders Consultation in Chiang Mai, Thailand from 14-19 Oct. and E2S in Bangalore, India, from Oct. 2-27. Pray that there will be no problems with immigration when she enters India.

12 Elizabeth Matthias, Mission to the World, Germany. "Our pastor and his family are still not well; pray for them. I'm excited by significant development on the DMin, though there is more work. Counselling breakthroughs have been glorious; mentoring and teaching increases."

13 Leah Hopp, OPC, Uganda. She flies back to Uganda on Oct. 16. The week before furlough and the week after returning are often the hardest. She needs wisdom to interact with the missionaries on her return. Leah looks forward to hearing from her community health team about their work while she was in Canada.

SUN Bill Fitch, Listen to Learn (L2L). Bill is thankful for the four Listen to Learn colleagues who had a fruitful and enjoyable month visiting with supporters and churches in Canada. Pray that they will be encouraged for the busy month ahead after returning Oct. 3 from their time abroad.

15 Mary Jane Fandrich, Lebanon. She is back at the Home of Hope but sometimes hope that these kids will profit from the attention is cut short by inflicted changes. May the staff have godly wisdom and strength to cope with these little ones whom God loves and may they begin to hear God speak to them through the verses they memorize.

www.knoxworldmission.ca

16 David & Susan Jeffery, CanIL, BC. Remember Dave's surgery for the insertion of a stomach tube on Oct 18th. He doesn't need this eating aid yet, but his breathing has weakened sufficiently that this surgery won't be possible if he waits much longer to have it. Pray him through his teaching sessions this fall as well (Mon. and Wed. afternoons). They really tire him and stress his voice.

17 D & Rani. Pray for Devanand & Rani as they follow-up with old contacts, Hindus, Sikhs, and Muslims, and make new friends to share the Good News. Pray for discernment about whom to spend time with.

18 Wayne & Helen Hancock, ThreeFold Ministries, Nicaragua. They are pleased that some local groups are again booking events in Oct & Dec at the centre. Pray as they seek to meet financial commitments to staff there and that North American groups may soon be able to travel to Nicaragua again.

knoxworldmission@bell.net

19 Chez and Katie, Knox Mission Hub. Thank God for a new group of Missions Disciplers launched: university students from several campuses across Canada who meet with us to learn how to mobilize. Pray for deepening faith for students who are leading out strongly with them. Pray also for their annual Live Called event in 2 months.

20 Luke & Yuko Elliot, OMF, Japan. "Help us pray and prioritize for the year ahead; we find we cannot do all that needs to be done: the work of grounds keeping and maintenance is extensive. Our vision includes developing the Living English program, Sunday evening English worship, Bible survey course, etc. We need more missionary helpers."

SUN Rosemary Walker, AIM, Korea. Pray for Rosemary in South Korea teaching English to Korean missionaries for most of this year.

22 Barbara Rahn, OMF, Cambridge. The OMF Canada office has moved to Scarborough. Some office staff have farther travel now. National Director Jon Fuller, and Marilyn are taking a Home Assignment this month. Pray as the team navigates all changes.