

25 Rosemary Walker. Rosemary has returned from the joy and adventure of teaching ESL in Korea. Pray for her next steps. She served in the Comoros over 40 years ago, and God continues to open new doors for her!

SUN Xerggio & Hil. “Hil and I are doing well, continue our language skill, and activities visiting families, for making strong relations with the people. It means many cups of tea per day. Please join us in prayer for: 1 Wisdom to decide which method will use for our resident permit after next Summer. 2 For every local friend we have, because we starting to discuss some important Faith issues. 3 Our health, it is a real challenge from next year for us. 4 Pray for extra energy for the language learning, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. every day.”

27 Laurie Armstrong, Power 2 Change. Pray for student and staff mission trips in May/June (“Desert Rain, East Asia, Victoria, Guelph), for God’s powerful work in and through each participant.

28 Phase 2: Barbara Hanna, Prudence Owen, Diane Dadian, Beth Huddleston, Eleanor Crabtree, Patsy McCarthy (and her daughter with cancer) and Pam Stedman.

29 Phase 2: Elaine Esser, Glenn & Fern Byerly, Marg Roth, Gladys Linthicum, John & Deborah Bowen, David & Angela Morris and Clarence & Cathy McMullen.

30 Angela & David Morris. Pray for a refugee family still waiting to be accepted by the Canadian govt. “They lived with us in Cyprus, Christians who came from a Muslim country. Pray for their acceptance soon.”

31 Perspectives Course. This is an intense 14-day course being held at Knox. Pray for all who have registered that they will have persistence, and be open to the Lord’s guidance.

Luke and Yuko Elliot and family serving in Japan

May 2019

1 Jack & Mary Anne Voelkel, Arizona. Pray for many from Knox to attend the Mission Conference, May 4 -5, and become excited to pray regularly for our mission workers. Mary Anne speaks on “Prayer in Missions” Saturday and Sunday morning; Jack will lead a Saturday session.

2 Bill & Sheila McKelvie, Interserve. Interserve Canada will hold a Retreat from May 3–5. May it be a time of refreshment and hearing from God.
Barbara Rahn, Cambridge. Pray for her sister Carol travelling from Indiana, May 2–5. Pray the Lord will meet them in beautiful fellowship.

3 Dom Goold, IVCF, Scarborough, U of T. As Dom returns may she have time to process all she experienced in South Africa and Tanzania, along with her father’s death. Pray as she reflects on ministry and listens to the Holy Spirit about summer and fall terms.

4 Donna Dong, IVCF. Pray for her sabbatical as she (a) attends Knox’s “Prayer in Mission”; (b) speaks to a women’s group on “Aha Moments from Mark’s Gospel”; (c) speaks on “Being God’s Global Multicultural Church”; and (d) attends the Global Diaspora Hub Gathering on peace-making.

SUN Mary Jane Fandrich, Lebanon. Pray for safe travel, wisdom & discernment as MJ raises funds for the new ‘Home of Security’ for battered women and families in Beirut. This new home is available for Home of Hope girls leaving without a secure place to go.

6 Elizabeth Matthias, Munich. Grace is essential for counselling, teaching and mentoring. The way forward for their church and pastor remains challenging. Also, after this year she needs a new Canadian sending agency. Pray for the Lord’s will and call to be clear to them all.

7 Hanneke Cost Budde, AIM, Tanzania. They are very thankful and happy that suddenly Jacky has been able to walk for 3 weeks without pain! May this be a permanent healing. May all be safe, including Hanneke’s car, as they travel back to their schools.

8 Wayne & Helen Hancock, Threefold, Nicaragua. Continue to lift up the people of Nicaragua. Things are better but not completely settled. They are excited to be able to receive the first team back at the Centre this month after a year.

9 Gord & Brenda Nickerson, Josiah Venture, Eastern Europe. Pray for their daughter Katie and husband, expecting their 2nd child this month. They praise God for the many ways they have seen God work through JV in the past 25 years.

10 Geri Rodman, IVCF. Pray for Geri's Doctor of Ministry graduation on May 11th at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary. Thanks for prayer as she wrote her thesis. Pray for Geri's guidance as she coaches staff in China and Jamaica.

11 Paul & Mary Beth McLean, Taiwan. Thank God for the good progress seven indigenous translation teams are making on their Bibles. May God bless them and Paul as they meet over the next month. Praise God that in the Knox College graduation, Paul will be honoured with a Doctorate of Missions.

SUN Carluci and Christina Dos Santos, LAM. They are very thankful for a sabbatical from the Latin America Mission which allowed time to prepare sermons and teach two Old Testament courses at Tyndale and the Spanish Bible Institute, Toronto. They thank us for prayer as they walk with their elderly Mom dealing with cancer.

13 David & Susan Jeffery, CanIL, BC. This month a number of CanIL students will visit possible countries of service. One student is to gather data in SE Asia for a thesis to complete her Masters degree. Pray that these travels will accomplish their purposes.

14 Bill Fitch, Listen to Learn, East Africa. "Our Listen to Learn graduates have been pressing for their studies to continue. We're putting finishing touches on a new Diploma program – remember our staff as they start to implement it."

15 Chez and Khevna, Knox Mission Hub. They thank God for making the way for more collaboration. Pray for 20+ students who are registered to take the Perspectives Course in the summer, exploring Biblical, historical and strategic intercultural missions. Pray, too, for 10+ U of T students who are embarking on summer missions' trips, that they would see God move, and continue in obedience.

16 Jim Mason, Challenge Enterprise, Ghana. In the Prison Ministry in the first quarter of 2019, more than 100 inmates gave their lives to the Lord. Praise! Pray they will continue with discipling Bible studies.

17 C & K have annual global meetings with team members May 18-24. Pray for the Holy Spirit to be with them strongly, building vision, equipping & raising up workers. Pray for wisdom & strength as they give leadership to business women and men from around the world.

18 Sylvia Dresser, Papua. The Bruce's returned to Saman exhausted from relief efforts for the Sentani flooding. Their house had mould, rats and a 7 ft. python. They hope to make language progress before home assignment in July. The Reipmas' visa request was rejected—pray!

SUN Luke & Yuko Elliot, Japan. "Pray for our visit to northern Hokkaido where some of our campers come from. Also, for the Hi-B.A. short term mission team visiting Aomori and ACC while we are away. May there be a fruitful partnership with them in future."

20 Devanand & Rani Bhagwan, Global Outreach, Brampton. Pray that Rani and Devanand would have a fruitful time following up the Hindus, Sikhs and Muslims who attended the Satsang. They thank God as they travel to Acadia University where Devanand will receive his Doctor of Ministry degree.

21 Ann Chow, Project Management. Pray for the planning meetings in Manila, for meeting (1) the host church, (2) producer from India, and (3) worship leader from Taiwan, to coordinate plans and work together. Then for the June meetings in Manila.

22 Leah Hopp, OP Church, Uganda. During May other team members are away and Leah and Tinah will work together, giving deworming pills to children, tetanus toxoid to pregnant mothers, HIV counselling and testing. Pray as they prove that "God's grace is sufficient for us and His power is made perfect in weakness".

23 Gus & Marliese, London. Pray for the possibility of working with a Middle Eastern team reaching out to refugees, while studying Arabic in June to July, 24 Norine Love, FFM. Over half of the Muslim world is said to be under 25, and youth everywhere are into social media. Pray for expanded outreach to and on behalf of Muslims, via prayer apps, internet presence, etc. Thank God for FFM's young administrator, very much a part of this social media world.
